

UCSC Summer Sustainability Institute Seminar Series

Tuesday evenings, 7-9 PM

At the Program in Community and Ecology, in The Village (Lower Quarry)

For more information, contact: Ronnie Lipschutz, 459-3275; rlipsch@ucsc.edu

This is a series of evening seminars offering talks by faculty and other experts on topics related to sustainability. It is open to students, staff, faculty & the public. The location is the meeting room at the Program in Community and Ecology (PICA), in The Village (Lower Quarry). Sponsored by the Center for Global, International & Regional Studies, PICA, the Sustainability Engineering & Design Working Group, and others.

June 23: Defining & practicing sustainability (Ronnie Lipschutz, Politics, UCSC)

June 30: Sustainable design (Melanie Dupuis, Sociology, UCSC)

July 7: Climate change on campus and off (Dan Press, Environmental Studies, UCSC)

July 14: Sustainable Water (Ben Crow, Sociology, UCSC; Ruth Langridge, Legal Studies, UCSC)

July 21: Sustainable Cities (Hilary Nixon, Urban & Regional Planning, San Jose State University)

July 28: Renewables in Denmark & the World (Ali Shakouri, Electrical Engineering, UCSC and visiting faculty from Denmark)

August 4: Green Architecture & Building (Thomas Rettenwender & Niklas Spitz, Environmental Studies, UCSC, and architects in Monterey, CA)

August 11: Sustainability at UCSC (Aurora Winslade, Campus Sustainability Coordinator, UCSC)

August 18: Agroecology & Sustainable Farming (Steve Gliessman, PICA and Environmental Studies, UCSC)

August 25: Sustainable Transportation (Elizabeth Deakin, City & Regional Planning and Urban Design, UC-Berkeley)

