

Brady Massey received a BME from the University of Central Arkansas, and an MM in Composition from Arkansas State University, where he studied with Dr. Jared Spears. Having over 16 years of experience with all levels of band performance, he is in demand as a clinician, adjudicator, designer, composer, and arranger for both Concert and Marching bands throughout the Southern United States. Currently the Director of Bands in the Pocahontas Public Schools in Pocahontas, Arkansas, his bands have consistently received superior ratings, and have been awarded numerous regional, state, and National honors and titles.

Mr. Massey is the recipient of the KAIT-TV "Golden Ruler" Award for Excellence in Education, The Pocahontas Schools Teacher of the Year Award, The Trumann (AR) Schools Teacher of the Year Award, the Phi Beta Mu Outstanding Young Director award, the ASBDA Young Director of the Year award, and has been a state finalist for Arkansas Teacher of the Year.

Mr. Massey is a member of the Arkansas School Band and Orchestra Association, the Arkansas Bandmasters Association, the National Band Association, and Phi Beta Mu. He is an associate member of the board of directors for the Dixie Band Camp, and a staff member of the Arkansas Ambassadors of Music. He and his wife Carol live in Pocahontas, Arkansas, and are expecting their first child in March of 2006.

